WILDCATS DOWN
MAINE QUINTET

New Hampshire Wins Easy
Victory in Fifth Game

Maine Defeated by Score of 34 to 14
at Orono—First Game Lost by Pine Tree Staters on New Basketball Court

The Wildcat basketball team ran up its string of victories to five straight games by defeating the University of Maine quintet at Orono last Saturday by the score of 34 to 14. The New Hampshire five led throughout the contest by an easy margin, topping the Pine Tree Staters at the half, 21 to 8. Bridge, Kelsea and Nicora were the outstanding players for the Wildcats, although the entire team played a fast brand of basketball.

New Hampshire took the lead at the start, mounting up twelve points before the Maine varsity could drop in a basket. Bridge had his eye on the basket and tossed in four double-deckers during the game. Nicora ran rings around the Maine team which found itself lost on their home court, the veteran guard garnering five free throws out of seven tries.

The strong five-man defense of the Blue and White was brought out very clearly in Saturday's game when time and time again Maine forwards waited in vain outside the defense for opportunities to shoot at the basket. All of New Hampshire's subs were used in the game, Slayton going in for Kelsea at center, Clark for Craig and Chandler for Bridge.

The game was played as part of Maine's carnival program. The Wildcats were the first basketball team to defeat the Pine Tree Staters on their new basketball court in the Memorial gym. Maine players seemed very lax in their guarding, three court men leaving the contest via the foul route. Craig had an off day in scoring, several of his shots barely missing the basket. Kelsea teamed up well with the forward line of Cotton and Craig, being credited with three baskets.

W. A. A. TO BE REPRESENTED AT ITHACA CONFERENCE

At a meeting of W. A. A. held Friday afternoon in T Hall, it was voted to send Muriel Steeves, '27 to Ithaca, New York as the New Hampshire representative at the Conference of the Women's Athletic Associations of American Colleges. It was also decided to have a body, composed of two members from each class, decide the number of points necessary for an "N. H." The suggestion was made that, hereafter, the sports leaders keep records of the members of the teams and the scores of the games.

EXPECT MAJOR SWANN
FOR RETURN ADDRESS

Following an appeal to the American Social Hygiene Association it was made known here Monday that a return engagement of Major Eugene Swann is expected next October. At that time, Major Swann expects to set before the student body problems in sex therapeutics and psycho-analysis.

A pressing need for such work as Major Swann advances has been realized by many colleges in the country and every effort to set before the student bodies the problems that have been neglected is undertaken by many.

The option on Dr. Swann's services is obtained through Mr. M. J. Exner, director of the Divisional Educational Measures, of the American Social Hygiene Association. Similar courses will be given at several other institutions in New England. If the specified plan works out well, it possibly will create on the part of many University Officials, an effort to promote discussion classes in problems such as Major Swann indicates.

"The Jest of Hahalaba"
Play Wins Judges' Favor

Alpha Chi Omega Takes Second Place
With Clever Skit of "Family Album"—Stunts May Be Repeated at Carnival

The Alpha Tau Omega fraternity was awarded first place at the annual Y. M. C. A. stunt night held Saturday night at the men's gymnasium for their one-act play entitled "The Jest of Hahalabo". James Lightbown, '28, Leslie Hubbard, Justin Clark, '29 and Langdon Smith, '27 took the parts.

The second place went to the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, which presented an original poem written by Ruth Horne, '28. The skit showed pictures seen by rural lovers in the family album. Practically all the members of the sorority took part in what was probably the most original piece of the evening. Virginia McGrillis, '28 and Elizabeth Tibbets, '27 took the leading parts.

Third place went to Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Other clever skits were "A Faculty Bridge Game" in which Professors Perley, Slobin, Ufford and Coach Cowell were characterized and "Bridget's Night Out" in which Helen Abbot, '29, Harriet Wyatt, '29 and Eleanor Littlefield, '29 took part.

The judges were Messrs. Hennessey, Scudder, Lloyd, Stevens, and Mrs. M. M. Smith of the university faculty and by their decision the cup was awarded to Alpha Tau Omega.

It has been suggested that the ten acts be repeated at the Winter Carnival in case the weather is unfavorable for some of the winter sports. This campus stunt night program is considered the best that has ever been presented here.

- The program was as follows:
1. "A Faculty Bridge Game," Delta Pi Epsilon
 2. "Mystery Act and Burlesque Drill," East and West Halls
 3. "The Family Album," Alpha Chi Omega
 4. "The Jest of Hahalaba," Alpha Chi Omega

PLEDGING NOTICE

Beta Gamma chapter of Phi Mu announces the pledging of Ellen Farley of Adams, Mass.

Snow is the only missing factor in the present plans for the largest and most extensive Winter Carnival ever held at the University on February 18 and 19. Athletes from Williams, Dartmouth, Brown, Maine, M. I. T., Middlebury and Norwich will all participate in the various sports that will take place during carnival weekend. Mayor Jensen has been selected to officially open the ski jumping on Beech Hill Saturday afternoon of Carnival.

All classes will end on Thursday at 6 P. M., with two full days being given over to outdoor and indoor carnival events. The mammoth carnival program will open Friday morning at two o'clock with snowshoe races, ski proficiency races, and a mile ski race being run off during the afternoon. At seven in the evening the feature event of the day, a huge ice carnival will be staged on the University pond with speed skating races of one-quarter and two mile lengths. Nat Niles and Mrs. Blanchard, National and Olympic champion fancy skaters will be on hand for exhibition figure skating. In addition to these striking features, the pond will be brilliantly decorated with unique lighting effects, igloos and ice palaces lining the shores.

The big social event of the Carnival program starts at nine o'clock Friday night when the formal Carnival Ball gets under way. The Purple Pirates of Williams College will furnish the music for the evening which will continue until two in the morning. Following a custom of previous years, no stags will be allowed at the Ball in the men's gym. No detail has been overlooked in the decorations.

On Saturday morning a seven-mile cross-country ski race begins at nine followed by a varsity hockey game with Brown at the hockey rink. The Wildcat boxing team meets the boxing team from M. I. T. at the big gym at one-thirty, this event being scheduled before the ski jumping this year. At the close of the ring matches, busses will take the large crowd of spectators to the ski jump on Beech Hill where New Hampshire, Williams and Dartmouth ski jumpers compete for honors in the Central Divisional Championships. Here Proctor of Dartmouth and Pederson of New Hampshire, the East's leading ski performers, will strive for leading ski honors.

Basketball games and fraternity dances take up the major part of Saturday night's program with outdoor sports in the form of skiing and toboggan sliding filling the spare moments of the day's events. The yearling basketball game starts at six-thirty, the Maine freshmen being the opposing quintet. Following this preliminary contest, the Wildcat varsity five plays the Maine varsity, old-time rivals of New Hampshire in all sports. Dances at fraternity houses are scheduled to start at eight-thirty with formal and informal dancing

UNIV. VISITED BY LEGISLATIVE MEMBERS

Nineteen members of the University Committee of the New Hampshire State Legislature, representing all parts of the state, made a visit to the University and enjoyed the program prepared for them by the committee in charge last Friday.

The Legislature toured the campus and visited classes during the morning, after which a brief meeting was held in which Dean Morse spoke to them in regards to the needs and general welfare of the University. The gymnasium was filled to capacity with students and guests who turned out in full to welcome the visitors.

FOUR FELLOWSHIPS GIVEN BY ENGLISH DEPT. OF TUFTS

The department of English has received from Tufts college a statement that the department of English at Tufts is in a position to offer four graduate fellowships of one thousand dollars and giving tuition free, to properly qualified students, both men and women, who have majored in English and who will graduate with the degree of A. B. in June, 1927. It is understood that the recipients of these fellowships will devote part of their time to teaching, in addition to continuing research work under the supervision of the English department at Tufts. Naturally enough the department of English at the university of New Hampshire is much interested in this matter, and has sent for the necessary application blanks to be filled out by such candidates as the department recommends.

TRUE SPIRIT

The usual outstanding display of school spirit that the undergraduate body has shown during the past two years took place here last Friday and, oddly enough, it did not come at an athletic contest. The students proved to Dean Morse and the faculty that they are willing to work for New Hampshire and that they appreciate the efforts being made for the good of the university and are doing their best to cooperate in every way possible. The legislative committee has come and gone and there is a new bond of sympathy and a deeper understanding between the students and the men and women who are guiding their destinies during the four years spent in college.

Coming in the morning as the legislators did and noting the student body in session in the various classrooms, they could not help seeing the crowded conditions that prevail. It was necessary many times for the visitors to pass through classes in order to inspect other parts of buildings. This was done with a minimum amount of confusion and with all possible respect on the part of the students in the rooms to the visitors. The various buildings visited and the conditions represented therein were true reflections of the conditions under which the faculty and students must labor. The attitude of the visitors after these facts were brought home could not escape notice.

Probably the greatest demonstration and greeting accorded the visitors was in the afternoon when they were brought face to face with the students for whom they are fighting. They were deeply impressed with the enthusiasm shown at convocation and did not hesitate to say so. The students did not grumble at an extra class which is what the meeting amounted to in the schedule. They did not cut. The gymnasium was packed, not because the students wished to get an extra convocation credit, but because the students wished to show their appreciation of the work being done for them by the executive department of the university. Students and faculty are working together for one end, New Hampshire, and realize it. The visit of the Legislative committee was a big thing for the University in more ways than one.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY HOLDS PARTY AT HIGHLAND HOUSE

On Friday, February 4, Mask and Dagger, the honorary dramatic society, had its annual party at the Highland House at Packers' Falls. Dinner was served, after which entertainment was provided by the new members, Alice Keenan, Bill Hoagland, and Ned Ward. The Lambda Chi orchestra furnished the music for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hennessy and Mr. and Mrs. Kalijarvi were the chaperones.

HOCKEY TEAM WINS OVER SPRINGFIELD

Varsity Triumphs in Week-end Contest—Rogers Stars as Wildcats Add Third Victim to List of Victories

New Hampshire's undefeated hockey team battled its way to another victory last Saturday when it defeated Springfield College at Durham by the score of 3-1. The wildcat team outskated its opponents and peppered the visiting goalie with shots throughout the game. The defense work of Vatter and Chandler proved too much for the Springfield forwards who found difficulty in penetrating the local goal. Roger's stops at goal for New Hampshire drew cheers from the crowd time and again. He utilized all parts of his body and when no other way was open he left the goal to throw the puck to the sideboards with his hands.

The Springfield team had played Friday night and in consequence of an automobile accident were not in the best condition. However, the members presented a formidable aggregation and were not easy victims. Ide featured in the second period with a long shot from center ice that went through three men and finally landed in the net. Lang at goal for Springfield had a poor day since he missed the first two goals which rolled under his skates. Flint, visiting center, was the cause of the only score for his team and played the best game of his team in the opinion of the students who viewed the contest.

The summary: New Hampshire (3) Springfield (1)
 Criss, rw Id, Wilson
 Ide, lw c, Flint
 Percival, c rd, Crowell
 (Young) lw, McCabe
 Chandler, rd (DeVener)
 (Wendelin) rw, Johnson

PROFESSOR WELLMAN TALKS TO MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Professor Justin O. Wellman addressed the freshman men's Bible class Sunday morning on the subject "Swapping Gods." In his lecture Professor Wellman pointed out the "Yankee's" reputation for keen tradesmanship and the mark of interest for sizing up a bargain. He said in part "Esau was held and ridiculed because he swapped that which had real value for personal satisfaction." He illustrated some of the modern Esaus in the following examples:

1. The student who barter his honor for ten points advantage in a term's work.
2. The athlete who barter sportsmanship to win a game.
3. The youth who barter physical health for selfish indulgence.

Professor Wellman drew attention to the list of Hebrews with reference to prosperity—the consequence of national adherence to monotheism and the catastrophe which results in the worship of strange gods. When a man loses the faith of his fathers an atheist is the result, according to him. He closed by saying that there is a great necessity for certain well established convictions which we should always bear in mind.

GIRLS' CLUB SERVES LUNCH TO MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE

HOME EC. NOTES

Coffee was served by girls of the Home Economics Department to the members of the committee from the legislature at the Faculty club on their arrival in Durham Friday morning. Tea and sandwiches were again served to the legislators before they left for Concord in the afternoon.

Many of the girls are making woven neck scarfs similar to those of the Berea exhibit which was displayed at Christmas.

A new system of grading has been inaugurated in this department, by which each girl judges every garment made on several points. The object is to make the final mark a composite of different opinions, and to give the girls training in grading work.

BULLETIN ISSUED ON CORN BORER'S HABITS

It has been announced that Professor W. C. O'Kane and Assistant Professor Philip R. Lowry of the Department of Entomology have just completed a research bulletin, giving the results of four year's study of the European Corn borer, under New Hampshire conditions. The work was started in 1923. The bulletin gives the results to date and outlines the work that will continue in the future. The study of the life history and habits of this insect has brought out many interesting facts.

The headquarters for this work has been in Durham and the screen house in the rear of Thomson Hall was erected for this purpose. Other experiments are being carried on in the southeastern part of New Hampshire.

HEELERS' CONTRIBUTIONS MAKE "GRANITE" A SUCCESS

According to latest reports the circulation of the 1928 Wildcat "Granite" will amount to 650 copies, exceeding last year's "Granite" circulation by about 100 copies. The announcement was made by C. Ned Elliot '28, editor of the publication.

The major portion of the work in the Granite has been done by the heelers, of which there are thirty-seven, twelve men and twenty-five women. The foreword, the dedication, the farewell address to Pres. Hetzel and the history of the Junior class were all written by heelers. Information concerning sororities, fraternities, honorary societies and various other organizations was also obtained by them. The heelers not only aided the literary side of the publication, but they also took orders for pictures and solicited advertising matter.

BOXING TEAM LOSES NEW YORK MATCH

New York University Glovemen Triumph In Week-end Bouts 4-2—Farrell and Nodes Score Knock-outs For New Hampshire

New Hampshire's boxing team journeyed to New York over the week-end and met defeat at the gloves of the New York University ringsters in four out of six bouts. The contests took place on board the U. S. S. Illinois which was anchored on the Hudson river.

New Hampshire scored all its points in the first two bouts in which Farrell, the 150-lb. contestant, knocked out Chet Cohn, and Norbert Nodes, 115-lb. man, obliged Frank Ferrara in the same manner. Necker, light heavyweight, and McCooley, 135 pounder, were defeated on the decisions, the former by Lou Guardino and the latter by Murray Israel. Captain Sargent fought a game battle but succumbed to the second round to Mike Szecsi, while Lucinski in the 125-lb. class, was forced to stop because of a severe cut over his eye delivered by a butt of his opponent's head, who was David Check.

Farrell's bout was the most spectacular of the day. After entering the ring both men sparred for but a few seconds and before his opponent was aware that he was in a fight, Farrell led with his right and crossed his left to the other's jaw.

 recommendation

EXPERIENCED pipe-smokers from Cape Lisburne to Cape Sable (get out your map of North America!) recommend P. A. to you as the finest tobacco that ever lined the bowl of a pipe. You'll check-in with their recommendation.

Why, the instant you swing back the hinged lid on the tidy red tin, your olfactory nerve registers a fragrance like that of a pine-grove on a damp morning. And when you tuck a load of this wonderful tobacco into your pipe—say, Mister!

Cool as Cape Lisburne, mentioned above. Sweet as the plaudits of a first-night audience. Mild as morning in Cape Sable. (That's working-in the old geography!) Mild, yet with a full tobacco body that completely satisfies your smoke-taste. Buy some Prince Albert today and make the test!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

RARE EXHIBIT AT THE LIBRARY

The University of New Hampshire is at a disadvantage compared to some colleges in that it is not near a large city where art treasures are gathered. The student in Boston or New York has access to libraries where beautiful and valuable books can readily be seen. In this day when book-collecting is becoming more and more of a passion and pastime with intelligent people it is up to each student here to try to take advantage of the things of value that the University has, to browse about for himself, to find out why a first edition is valuable, what a folio is, what is the most valuable book in the world, how many copies there are, what is a Book of Hours, etc.

The Library has been having two unusually interesting exhibits in the last two weeks. The first was a collection of leaves from very old manuscripts which were loaned to the Library by Rowland E. Partridge and Lewis Stark. The illumination and beautiful lettering on these parchments were excellent illustrations of the beautiful work done in the fifteenth century.

The other exhibit is of some of the oldest and most valuable books belonging to the Library. The star of the collection is Dr. Johnson's Dictionary, a FIRST EDITION, published in 1755 by Andrew Millar, that is well worth reading.

Two other prizes are first editions of Hawthorne's "The House of Seven Gables" and "The Scarlet Letter." Speaking of the latter Foley in "American Authors" says: "In the first issue the word 'reduplicate' occurs on page 21, line 20; for which the word 'redupiate' was substituted in the second issue (although in his preface to the latter the author asserts its publication 'without the change of a word'); the word 'resusitate' appears in subsequent issues."

Another first edition is a little old volume giving an account of the Lewis and Clark expedition by one Patrick Gass, a member of the party. This was published in 1807, a year after their return. We have also a first edition of Longfellow's "The Golden Legend."

A recent purchase by the Library is Wood's Athenae Oxonienses. This is a list of the notable graduates of Oxford from 1500 to 1695. The list is often referred to in English literature and is valuable for the lives of obscure writers of the period. The work itself is in two volumes beautifully bound in tooled leather. It is worth looking at for the binding alone. Notice how the book is bound with raised cords on the back. Nowadays most books have tapes instead of cords and a slight groove is made for these.

Another folio edition contains in one volume the works of Ben Jonson, printed in 1629. The other books in the exhibit are "The Beauties of Sterne," printed in London in 1793, and having interesting engravings, and "Aristotelis Opera Omnia"—Aristotle's complete works, printed in 1629.

PHILOSOPHY COURSE GIVES WORLD VIEWS

Sums Up History of Civilization and Literature—Deals With Life and Thought in Affairs of Man

"The Changing World and Changing World Views," which is being taught this term by Prof. Herbert F. Rudd to the students in philosophy, has for its basis two books, "Education for a Changing Civilization" by Kilpatrick, and "Things and Ideals" by Otto.

This course sums up the history of civilization and literature, picking out leading characters of the different periods and contrasting them. How to maintain human loyalties and high cultural values in a changing material civilization and whether or not the philosopher is the prophet of an appealing possibility rather than the judge of ultimate truth are typical questions discussed in this course.

In the study of the history of philosophy, instead of reading a dry, uninteresting history of philosophy, the book used is Will Durant's "A Story Of Philosophy." The first of this book, though not best of its kind, has proved to be a popular work, for it selects the significant men whose lives have influenced philosophical thought and presents their views and works in a forceful interesting way. The courses in philosophy deal with the question of life and thought in relation to the improving of the affairs of man.

UNIVERSITY TOBOGGAN SLIDE TO EXTEND TO MILL ROAD

The University toboggan slide on Bonfire hill is nearing completion as only a sufficient fall of snow is necessary to put it in working condition. The wooden structure is 100 feet in length with a modern easy-working tilting table at the start. The slide will extend to the Mill road where a path will be made for the return up the hill. When enough snow falls to insure safety the slide will be iced over and put into condition for the Carnival.

In connection with the slide a bridge has been built leading to East and West halls to eliminate all possibility of accidents that might occur in crossing the slide.

BOOK AND SCROLL SOCIETY HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

At a meeting of Book and Scroll held in Congreve hall last Monday night, the program was featured by the reading of original papers by the various members. The object of this was to arouse interest in the coming literary contest between Vermont, Maine and New Hampshire.

Dr. Richardson exhibited two posters with drawings and poems by Rachel Lindsay which have been given to Book and Scroll.

A special meeting will be held in the near future at which time Dr. Lloyd will head a discussion of the writing of short stories. The next regular meeting will be held in Smith Hall February 21.

Let old Squire Pipe be the judge...

His HONOR, old Squire Pipe is unquestionably the world's ablest judge of pipe tobaccos. Who else is by nature, training and experience so well-qualified to try a tobacco and hand down a decision on it? . . So, in the case of Granger Rough Cut, the plea is that Judge Pipe's verdict be accepted as FINAL!

To make a long brief brief: Character witnesses everywhere have sworn to Granger's sterling quality. Experts have vouched for the superiority of its rough cut. Chemists have testified that the new "glassine-sealed" foil-pouch keeps the tobacco in perfect condition.

Finally, it has been shown that by using this foil-pouch (instead of a costly tin) it is possible to sell Granger at just ten cents. On these arguments Granger rests its case! A couple of pipefuls will convince Squire Pipe that it is the world's greatest pipe tobacco . . and any good judge of tobaccos will confirm the decision!

GRANGER
Rough Cut

The half-pound vacuum tin is forty-five cents, the foil-pouch package, sealed in glassine, is ten cents.

Made
for pipes only!
